

Identity Statements

Read aloud over yourself and your children. If your child is verbal, have them read along!

I am completely forgiven and made righteous for I walk in a spirit of repentance.

Romans 5:1

I will sacrifice entertainment for attainment of my destiny.

Romans 12:1-2

I choose to consecrate my life and be set apart for my Lord, Jesus Christ and His Kingdom. Above all else, I seek first God's Kingdom and its expansion, for this will release all things to be given to me.

2 Timothy 1:9; Titus 3:5; Matthew 6:33

I was conceived in the heart of God before the foundations of the world. My life was planned and purposed by God. Though my parents parented by flesh, my soul and spirit began before the creation of the world within the heart of my Father God. When I asked Jesus to live within my heart the Holy Spirit sealed me with the promise of my inheritance. My eyes are open to see the calling and destiny upon my life and to receive the inheritance planned for me before the world began.

Ephesians 1:4, 13b, 17

I chose to renounce and break all agreement with the sins and curses of generations past and my own sin. The sentence of death is broken for the Spirit of God releases me.

Psalms 102:18-21; Ex. 20:5; Jeremiah. 31:29; 1 John 1:9

I purpose before my God that I will fulfill God's purpose for my generation. I will show His strength and His power to this generation. I have come into the Kingdom for such a time as this!

Acts 13:36; Esther 4:14

I know my God and His strength shall arise out of me and I will do mighty things.

Daniel 11:32

Though satan has made war with me, I will crush him under my feet by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Revelation 12; Romans 16:20

God is for me and on my side. I have nothing to fear. I choose to walk in the fear of the Lord, which drives out all fear of man.

Romans 8:31-32

Much is given to me and required of me by my God, for I choose to be faithful in the little as well as the great.

Luke 12:48

I possess the character to walk in covenant relationships with integrity. I am a true friend who loves at all times, sharpening the countenance of my friends, and opening my heart to receive the same from them.

Proverbs 17:17; Proverbs 27:6; Proverbs 7:17

I am truly living because I have found someone, Jesus, and something, His Kingdom, worth dying for. I love not my life unto death; thus I have truly found my very identity and reason for being. I live for someone and something much greater than myself.

Revelation 12:11

I choose to submit my will to the will of God and to walk in His ways, His plans, and His purposes for my life. I purpose to be what God has called me to be, do what He has called me to do, and accomplish His destiny for my life.

Luke 9:23-25

God is raising up mighty men of God to be mentors and fathers in the faith; therefore I open my heart to them. They have turned their hearts to me and in return I turn my heart towards them bringing blessing to this land.

Luke 1:17; Malachi 4:6

Though violence spread throughout the land, I will arise and take a stand. The Kingdom of God has suffered violence, and in a righteous violence, I will take back all the enemy has stolen from me.

Matthew 11:12

God's Word is like a fire shut up inside of me that is released through my words, my life, my actions, and attitudes.

Jeremiah 20:9

I am the salt of the earth and a light to a dark world. I choose to affect my generation and my nation for Kingdom purposes.

Matthew 5:13-14

I am a warrior in God's army and I am prepared to fight for His Kingdom. I am strong in the power of God's Spirit. This generation is ripe for harvest and I will swing the sickle with a voice proclaiming His salvation. There are multitudes in the valley of decision and the day of the Lord is near, therefore, I shall arise and fulfill my pre-ordained God-given destiny.

Joel 3:9-14

I receive the power of the Holy Spirit in my everyday life. I will prophesy, dream dreams, see visions, and will walk in the fullness of God's Spirit. I am a part of a powerful prophetic generation that will declare God's voice, be a demonstration of His power, bring salvation to those who are lost, and deliverance to those bound.

Malachi 2:28-32

What I have freely received, I will freely give! Healing to the brokenhearted, freedom for the captives, comfort, and a release from all darkness. I have a double portion and double inheritance in the land. My God has made a covenant with me; therefore, I will be known among the nations and among all people.

Isaiah 61; Matthew 10:8

I will arise with a voice of morality to this land. I will be unmoved and make a stand for righteousness. I am a holy nation and I will proclaim truth, allowing my voice to arise to declare God's best for my life, my generation, and my nation.

1 Peter 3:1; 4:1

I hear clearly the voice of God and I obey Him instantly and fully. The best meal I will ever eat will be to do my Father's will!

John 10:4; John 4:32

I am willing and obedient; therefore, the best of the land is reserved for me. I declare the presence of God in my life, God's Word in my heart, in my hand, and upon my lips.

Isaiah 1:18; Rom. 10:9-10

I give to the anointing and to Kingdom purposes, therefore I know that all that I ever will need will be supplied. There is no mountain that can stand before me for I walk in forgiveness for my Heavenly Father has forgiven me.

Philippians 4:19; Mark 11:23-25

God made a covenant with Abraham and his seed. God declared that to his descendants He would give the land. I claim my portion in this land and this land for the Kingdom of God.

Genesis 5:17-18

I set my face as flint to pursue my God and His plan for my life. The sovereign Lord helps me; therefore, I will not be disgraced nor be put to shame.

Isaiah 50:7

I do not fight flesh and blood, but arise anointed of the Holy Spirit, clad in His armor. I destroy the works of the devil by pulling down strongholds in the name of Jesus. God has promised me abundant life; therefore, I rise up and possess my Promised Land.

Ephesians 6:12-13; John 10:10
